

Frame it!

Name it!

Explain it!

Work in your notebook to play with either "Intro - Example - Connect"
OR "Frame It - Name It - Explain It"

Explain

Look at my example below. Label and underline my frame, name, and explain. When Andrew gets to the People aren't always what their first impressions seem. People aren't always a beautiful girl and assumes she must be wonderful. orthodontist's office, he notices a beautiful girl and gave me her back like she was (324). This When he sits down, though, "She primly inched away and gave me her appearance. a cat and I was some kind of bug she couldn't even be bothered to tease" of someone who is shows that the girl isn't as wonderful as Andrew thinks she is based on her appearance. She ignores him completely, which isn't exactly a characteristic of someone who is wonderful.